Call for Judicial Republican Convention.

The republicans of the forty-second judicial district of the state of Indiana will meet in delegate convention at Paoli, Ind., on Saturday September 27th, 1902, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating a republican candidate for prosecuting attorney of said district.

The apportionment of delegates will be the same as that applied to the last republican state convention. Jackson county will be entitled to fourteen delegates and fourteen alternates; Orange county will be entitled to eleven delegates and eleven alternates; Washington county will be entitled to eleven delegates and eleven alternates, making the total number of delegates thirty-six; necessary to a choice, nineteen. By order of

W. H. BURKLEY, Chairman Jackson County R. C. C.
J. P. THORP, Chairman Orange County R. C. C.
LEWIS DENNIS, Chairman Washington County R. C. C.

Republican Township Conventions.

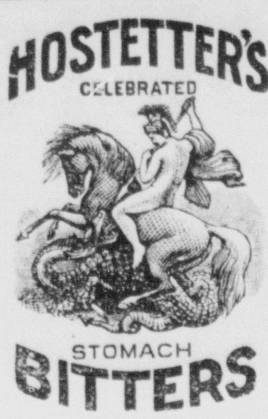

The republicans of Jackson county will meet in their several townships Saturday September 6th, 1902, at 1:30 o'clock p. m. and select delegates and alternates to the congressional, judicial and county conventions. The apportionment of delegates and alternates for the county convention will be one delegate and one alternate to every 15 votes and fraction of 10 votes cast for Hugh H. Hanna, republican elector at large, at the November election 1900.

The apportionment of delegates and alternates to the congressional and judicial conventions will be one delegate and one alternate to every 200 votes and fraction of 100 votes cast for Hugh Hanna, elector at large at the November election 1900.

On the above apportionments Jackson county will elect 184 delegates and 184 alternates to the county convention, and 14 delegates and 14 alternates each to the congressional and judicial conventions.

The apportionment for the several townships and the places of meeting and selecting same are as follows: JACKSON TOWNSHIP AT SEYMOUR.

70 delegates and 70 alternates for county convention.
delegates and 5 alternates to Congressional convention.

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS

W. H. BURKLEY, Chairman.

E. A. REMY, Sec.

Don't forget your township convention next Saturday. Be present and have a part in selecting delegates to the different conventions.

Jackson county should send a large delegation to the congressional convention at Madison September 11. The Madison people are preparing a great reception.

The smoke nuisance was not an issue during the late lamented democratic administration. There were no fires in the furnaces. Smoke consumers were not needed.

PRESIDENT Roosevelt in a speech Tuesday spoke very frankly about the regulation and control of trusts. His practical ideas on this great question will be favorably received by the people.

TOM JOHNSON, Bryan's right hand man in Ohio, has won out in that state in spite of the reorganizers, and will control the state organization and dictate the nominations.

The Indianapolis Sentinel thinks it unfair to call attention to the rapid reduction of the state debt since the republicans came into control of affairs in Indiana. It does show democracy up in a bad light but the old party of Bryan and Tillman and Taggart and the rest of the happy family must stand by its record.

THERE are a great many democrats in Jackson county who are mighty sorry the bosses in charge called that bogus convention for September 26, and if they could have their way they would call it off. The anxiety of the office holding class of democrats in Jackson county is beyond control. The rank and file, the men who pay the taxes, are getting tired of their exhibitions and will rebuke them good and proper on election day.

There will be work in the third rank by Hermion Lodge K. of P. at the meeting Thursday night of this week.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

John Horan has charge of the yard for yardmaster Wigginton in his absence.

POLITICAL GOSSIP.

State Chairman Goodrich, Hon. Joseph B. Keating, and several State officials and candidates for State offices on the Republican ticket will be present at the Republican Congressional convention in Madison on Thursday Sept. 11th.—Madison Courier.

The republicans of Jackson county will meet in mass conventions in the several townships next Saturday afternoon at 1:30 to select delegates to the county, judicial and congressional conventions.

C. C. Lyons, of Fairmount, who will have charge of the speakers bureau during the campaign at republican state headquarters went on duty today and soon a number of assignments will be announced.

Precinct committeemen should be present at the township conventions Saturday and see that places for the conventions are provided.

DIED.

MCDONALD.—Mrs. Tude McDonald, of Indianapolis, late of Seymour, died Wednesday, August 27, of typhoid fever.

SEITZ.—Mrs. Otto Seitz, formerly Miss Maud Jeffers, of this city, died at her home at Mt. Carmel, Illinois, Tuesday, September 2, after an illness of several weeks. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Jeffers, of this city, and had many friends in Seymour. A number of the relatives here have gone to Mt. Carmel to attend the funeral.

Attorney Fee in Jeopardy.

The case of the State vs. B. F. McConnell, of Indianapolis, visited relatives here Sunday. McConnell, who had been indicted by Judge Baskirk last week has developed an unusual amount of interest. Nearly everybody in Geneva township, the township in the northwest corner of Jennings county, is taking sides in the affair and a great many were summoned to Brownstown as witnesses. But now that Lincoln Dixon's fee for helping prosecute the case is in jeopardy a new feature comes into the controversy.

The origin of the case is something like this: A difference of opinion arose between Trustee Smith and B. F. McConnell over the exact line of a public highway along McConnell's land. McConnell planted a post at a point on the line as he claimed it was. The supervisor pulled the post up and McConnell planted it again in the same place. He was then indicted on the charge of obstructing a public highway. The case got into circuit court and was venued to this county and tried and the court will make his decision Thursday.

It being a state case Lincoln Dixon was employed by Trustee Smith to help prosecute and it is alleged agreed to pay him a $300 fee and that the advisory board made the appropriation accordingly. Now comes some taxpayers who do not believe in such an expenditure of public money. They have employed Thos. C. Bacheiler to bring an action to resist the payment of $300 or any other sum to Dixon for services which the prosecutor could have rendered. In the absence of Judge New the case was heard by Judge Hord at Columbus who granted a temporary restraining order. Judge Hord will hear argument on the restraining order Wednesday, September 3, and decide whether or not the order shall be permanent.

Franchise Granted.

The county commissioners have granted the franchise as asked for by G. A. Robertson and John B. Burrell for a right of way for an electric railroad through Jackson county. The road if built will come into the county from Bartholomew north of Reddington and pass through Seymour, Brownstown, Vallonia and Medora. The idea is to connect with the Irwin line at Columbus and to build on to West Baden.

Prohibition Alliance Postponed.

Owing to some other meetings being in progress the Prohibition Alliance meeting will be postponed to Thursday Sept. 11, at the Baptist church lecture room.

Ed Schmidt left Tuesday night for Ft. Wayne where he will attend college the coming year.

Rev. L. O. Steining who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cobb the past week returned to his home at Indianapolis today.

The indications are that a larger number of Sunday school workers than usual will go from here to Brownstown tomorrow to attend the county Sunday school convention.

A Boy's Wild Ride For Life.

With family around expecting him to die, and a son riding for life, 18 miles, to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, W. H. Brown, of Leesville, Ind., endured death's agonies from asthma, but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief and soon cured him. He writes: "I now sleep soundly every night." Like marvelous cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis, coughs, colds and grip prove its matchless merit for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at W. F. Peter's Drug Co.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Action on Cases the Past Few Days.

The business of the circuit court has been moving along rather leisurely the past few days. Not many cases of importance have been tried so far this term. The McConnell case which was tried last week will be decided by Judge Baskirk Thursday.

Sentence was passed on Charles Mitchell who was tried and found guilty of petit larceny. He gets a sentence of one to three years for taking another man's revolver.

The grand jury has reported five indictments to date. One of these is against Stephen D. Murray who made an attempt on the life of Marshal White, of Crothersville.

The case of Asbury H. Manuel vs. Charles Ackerman, to quiet title, has been compromised.

In the suit of Elizabeth Garvey vs. John Garvey for divorce, a divorce was granted plaintiff. She was also given $9,400 alimony and granted an allowance of $500 for attorney fees.

Fortune Favors a Texan.

"Having distressing pains in head, back and stomach, and being without appetite, I began to use Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes W. P. Whitehead, of Kennedale, Tex., "and soon felt like a new man." Infalible in stomach and liver troubles. Only 25c at W. F. Peter's Drug Co.

EDWARD EGGLESTON DEAD.

Passes Away at His Summer Home on Lake George.

SPECIAL TO REPUBLICAN.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 3.—Edward Eggleston, the famous author of the Hoosier Schoolmaster, died at his cottage on Lake George, in New York Tuesday night of apoplexy.

Edward Eggleston was one of Indiana's famous literary men. His Hoosier Schoolmaster first made him famous. The material for this story was gathered in south-eastern Indiana when his home was at Vevay. In his younger days he was a preacher and rode his circuit and while thus engaged he gained the experience and gathered the material for his story, "The Circuit Rider." Other stories he produced are "The End of the World," "Roxy," "The Hoosier School Boy," "The Faith Doctor," and several other stories. In later years he turned his attention to history and produced several valuable books on the United States.

Dr. Eggleston maintained a home in Madison where he spent much of his time in later years.
